

Human Services and Welfare Guidelines

The Human Services and Welfare Guidelines were updated by the Human Services Department and adopted by the Board of Selectmen on September 24, 2012. This document details many different aspects of Exeter's Human Services Department. The guidelines describe how people qualify, the role of the governing body and the application process. It also lists the definition, how income is calculated, and what assistance can be given to non-residents.

For more information please contact the Human Service Department.
